EVERYTHING IN ONE PLACE

The world's first and only truly complete front of house solution for hospitality businesses and their customers that puts food at its heart. Designed by hospitality professionals, for hospitality professionals.

Welcome to the ~nu generation of food tech. Faster, more powerful and less expensive than anything on the market.

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

Built around a first of its kind database all about food, me~nu® is everything you need in one place. Interactive digital menus, order and pay from table, home delivery and takeaway ordering, and POS solutions.

Nothing else comes close.

Hospitality focused development makes me~nu® a platform ready for today's market with tomorrow's tech.

YOUR CUSTOMERS WILL LOVE IT

Everything customers want to know about your food in one place; provenance, nutrition, allergens and intolerances, dietary preferences including vegan, vegetarian, religious diets, your local suppliers, ethic and standards, awards and accreditation.

Allow consumers to interact with your menu like never before.

PERSONALISED AND ACCURATE

me~nu® users can personalise your menu to fit their personal needs or preferences.

Every question answered, every query satisfied, leaving your team to focus on service. A whole new way of dining, designed around a complete customer experience.

me~nu® is one of a kind. Give your business a competitive advantage that can't be matched. A highly personalised experience, full menu interaction, and less staff time required. me~nu® delivers a market edge that delivers better profits, reduced costs and drives sales.

PROTECT YOUR GUESTS, AND YOUR BUSINESS

me~nu® covers more than just the normal recognised allergens. We cover over 30 food groups ensuring a full and comprehensive analysis of your menu, protecting your guests and your business against any allergen concerns.

me~nu® removes the risks, making it easy for anyone to look after, even the most complex dietary needs.

When covered by me~nu®, you're using a system customers now expect. Transfer complex legal requirements into simple to use, easily managed systems.

TELL YOUR STORY

Simple to use, and sophisticated systems allow you to use video, text and pictures to tell people about your passion for food and your suppliers passion for their produce.

It's not just an interactive menu, it's your own app. More direct than social media, more effective than traditional advertising. Reach customers old and new like never before. Targeted, laser focused marketing, controlled by you, the business.

AMPLIFY YOUR QUALITY

Your ingredients have a story. Use them to highlight the quality of your food - me~nu[®] gives business a competitive edge other systems simply cant deliver. You're plugged in to a vast and wide spreading network of businesses, suppliers and producers. You're part of the market's fastest growing food ecosystem.

CELEBRATE YOUR SUPPLIERS

The passion you put in to your food is reflected by the producers you partner with. Our unique platform means their story is visible to your guests. Now, your customers see the whole food journey. Celebrate the relationships you have, and why you use the products you love.

me~nu[®] creates a unique eco system between your business, your producers and your customers with food firmly at the centre.
